Gale offers several useful resources for conducting research for disciplines across the curriculum:

Select  Gale Virtual Reference Library
Gale Virtual Reference Library is a database of encyclopedias and specialized reference sources for multidisciplinary research. These reference materials once were accessible only in the library, but now you can access them online from the library or remotely 24/7. Because each library creates its own eBook collection, the content you see may vary if you use the database at different libraries (your school, your public library, or your office).

Select  Opposing Viewpoints Resource Center OCT, 2010
Opposing Viewpoints Resource Center has been upgraded to Gale Opposing Viewpoints In Context. Opposing Viewpoints Resource Center is still listed in the Gale Common Menu to support cross-search functionality until a PowerSearch enhancement release later this year. Click on Gale Opposing Viewpoints In Context below to experience the same acclaimed content in Gale's new online environment.

Select  Informe 1994 - Oct 2010
Una colección de revistas hispánicas con textos completos. Abarca negocios, salud, tecnología, cultura, temas de actualidad y otras materias.

 Gale Opposing Viewpoints In Context
Gale Opposing Viewpoints In Context is an engaging online experience for those seeking contextual information and opinions on hundreds of today's hottest social issues. Drawing on the acclaimed Greenhaven Press series, the new solution features continuously updated viewpoint articles, topic overviews, full-text magazines, academic journals, news articles, primary source documents, statistics, images, videos, audio files and links to vetted websites organized into a user-friendly portal experience.

 LitFinder for Schools
Covering world literature and authors throughout history, LitFinder for Schools contains a wealth of literary works, including over 150,000 full-text poems, short stories, speeches, and dramatic works. For students seeking a deeper view into literature, LitFinder for Schools also includes biographies, work summaries, author images and a full glossary of literary terms. From Shakespeare's sonnets to the poetry of Maya Angelou or short stories by Edgar Allan Poe to works by Annie Prout, LitFinder for Schools has you covered.

All of the articles available through Gale provide the user with the ability to utilize the information in a variety of ways and to translate the article in a variety of languages.

In addition to the useful ways the articles may be accessed the user may also have the article read to them by clicking on the volume icon at the top of the article. Articles may also be downloaded as a PDF for e-readers.

Remember that our virtual reference library can be accessed through Follett Destiny by conducting a search.

Citations for documentation are provided in several formats but the MLA citation is provided at the bottom of the articles.

Remember: You can search the collection by each database or as an entire collection.
